CDL Alcohol and Drug Screening

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA), along with the Department of Transportation (DOT), requires that persons subject to the commercial driver's license (CDL) requirements and their employers follow alcohol and drug testing rules. These rules include procedures for testing, frequency of tests, and substances tested for.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT TESTING

All applicants for employment on a permanent or temporary basis as a CMV driver, or current employees who wish to remain CDL drivers, must be given pre-employment tests for controlled substances. Prior to conducting the test, you must inform the applicant or driver in writing of the testing requirements (§382.601)

I the undersigned agree, upon a request made under the drug/alcohol testing policy of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, to submit to a drug or alcohol test and to furnish a sample of my urine, breath, and/or blood for analysis. I understand and agree that if I at any time refuse to submit to a drug or alcohol test under company policy, or if I otherwise fail to cooperate with the testing procedures, I will be subject to immediate termination. I further authorize and give full permission to have the Company and/or its company physician send the specimen or specimens so collected to a laboratory for a screening test for the presence of any prohibited substances under the policy, and for the laboratory or other testing facility to release any and all documentation relating to such test to the Company and/or to any governmental entity involved in a legal proceeding or investigation connected with the test. Finally, I authorize the Company to disclose any documentation relating to such test to any governmental entity involved in a legal proceeding or investigation connected with the test
